The new Mt. Kineo House

Moosehead Lake, Maine

Rebuilt—Refurnished at an expense of more than $300,000. Luxury is now the keynote of this long-famous resort. In appointments, in cuisine, in service it is one of the most sumptuous inland lake hotels.

Rooms Single or En Suite (with Bath)

Cool Maine breezes for every room. Fresh garden products from the Home Farm the whole season through—all the delicacies of the market supplied with that full-handed generosity and skill which have made the Ricker catering celebrated.

A few secluded cottages, with or without hotel service, are yet available for rental.

Managed by "The Rickers"

The new Mt. Kineo House is now conducted by this celebrated family who made famous "Poland Spring" and "The Samoset" at Rockland.

Their genius for hotel-keeping—their 100 years of experience—now assure to Mt. Kineo that boundless hospitality and perfect service for which they are recognized.

On Lovely Moosehead

Twenty-six miles from the Canadian border, in the very heart of the Maine woods, on a peninsula, 1000 feet above sea level, jutting out from under the shadow of Mt. Kineo into the crystal waters of Moosehead Lake—no wonder Kineo is cool.

On three sides the breeze-swept lake—on the other the virgin forest.

Where Sports Excel

Tennis and golf in the cool mountain air. A luxurious yacht club—canoeing, motor-boating and sailing. Fishing and bathing for everybody.

Mountain-climbing, tramping and camping for those who wish it.

Gay social life—dances, cards, picnics—music by a Metropolitan orchestra.

Within Easy Reach of New York

Through Pullman Service leaving New York from Grand Central Terminal in the evening and making Kineo in the forenoon (Dining Cars). The journey itself through picturesque New England is a delight.
